White Wine Selection

1. Moreau Blanc, France £13.50

Our ever popular French House white made by one of the best Chablis producing houses. Dry, fruity and very refreshing.

2. Pinot Grigio, Varsare, Italy £13.50

A grape that has only recently come back into favour, producing a superb dry wine which is an ideal accompaniment to fish.

3. Chenin Blanc, Eagles Cliff, S. Africa £14.25

A grape which seems at its best grown in S. Africa, giving good acidity and producing a stunning crisp, dry wine.

4. Sauvignon Blanc, Carte Vieja, Chile £15.50

Grown on the slopes of the Andes, this grape produces a characteristic dry, aromatic wine, with gooseberry and citrus overtones.

5. Viognier, Eagles Cliff, South Africa £15.75

A grape that has come back into favour, producing a superb dry wine which is an ideal accompaniment to fish.

6. Chardonnay, Waterston Ridge, Australia £16.50

An un-oaked, soft Australian chardonnay with peach and melon flavours and a long, buttery finish.

7. Sauvignon Blanc, Century Hill, New Zealand £18.50

From a small winery in Marlborough producing the primary fruit, character and crisp acidity that defines a really good Sauvignon

8. Chablis, Moreau, France £22.50

A classic Burgundy white. Greenish in colour, slightly flinty flavour with overtones of hay. Very crisp and deliciously dry. An extremely elegant and stylish wine. Recommended.

9. Sancerre, Domaine le Gemiere, France £23.50

The King of Loire wines and probably the most distinctive of French wines. The aroma is almost gun-flint and the flavour slightly spicy and slightly smoky. Made with the Sauvignon grape it still has a superb crispness and acidity. A very well-balanced wine.

Rosé Wine

- 10. Pinot Grigio Rosé, Varsare, Italy £15.50
A fine, light and crisp example of this Italian classic, great for Summer drinking.

Red Wine Selection

- 11. Moreau Rouge, France £13.50
The sister to our house white and just as delicious.

- 12. Shiraz, Waterstone Ridge, S.E. Australia £14.50
A typical Aussie Shiraz, full of everything! Flavour, fruit bale, aromas. You name it – it's got it!

- 13. Merlot, Carte Vieja, Chile £15.00
From an award winning vineyard comes this terrific, full flavoured and superbly well rounded example of the Merlot grape. Exceptional value for money!

- 14. Tempranillo, Orvalaiz, Spain £15.75
Bright Garnet in colour, stacked with red berry fruit, soft in the mouth giving a smooth finish.

- 15. Pinotage, Eagles Cliff, South Africa £16.00
A deep crimson colour, full of rich spicy aromas without any harsh tannin aftertaste. This wine has a well rounded powerful palate.

- 16. Rioja Crianza, Marques de Caceres, Spain £17.75
Created from a new style of making Rioja, this is blended from four different grapes to produce a food-friendly wine. It is full of flavour with that distinctive oaky tinge of all the finest Riojas.

- 17. Pinot Noir, Saint Clair, New Zealand £18.50
A grape variety they specialise on in those parts! It gives a truly robust wine, full of ripe berry fruit character, all enhanced with a slight spicy oak flavour.

18. Cabernet Sauvignon, Gran Reserva, Chile £19.50

The grapes for this wine are handpicked from specific plots of low yield in the Loncomilla Valley and only the best go to make the wine. The result is an absolute stunner! The best we have tasted!

19. Fleurie, Domaine de Chaffangeons, France £22.00

An excellent Cru Beaujolais. Full fruit ripeness, plummy and rounded a classic expression of the Gamay grape.

20. Barolo, Villadoria Piedmont, Italy £23.00

A well known Italian classic, a deep red robust wine full of Ripe berries, with just a hint of spiciness.
